The Religious Amendment

The Charleston Republican treats of the proposed religious amendment to the Constitution of the United States in a manner admirable both in sentiment and in spirit. It says

A convention was held in Philadelphia last week for taking measures to secure the adoption of an amendment to the Federal Constitution in which God shall be recognized and Christianity be declared the true basis of human government. That convention of course could be made up only of active zealous Christian men good citizens who desire to do that which is right and who desire to see the nation, as a whole placed upon the right. And yet they deliberately resolved as follows

"That in view of the controlling power of the Constitution in shaping State as well as National policy, it is of immediate importance to public morals and to social order to secure such an amendment as will indicate that this is a Christian nation, and place Christian laws, institutions and usages in our Government on an undeniable legal basis in the fundamental law of our nation—especially those which secure a proper oath and which protect society from blasphemy, Sabbath breaking and polygamy.

This is zeal without knowledge. Now the "proper oath" mentioned in that resolution could not of course be taken by a Hebrew or Deist or Atheist or by any class of free thinkers as they are called, or by any class of religion whose foundation groundwork differs from that of the convention. They would not only be excluded from office but even from the jury box &c. Church and State would thus be united the Government, instead of being a Government of the people the whole people including even the heathen Chinee (who could not take this oath) would be a Government of a privileged class—that is, of those alone who accepted Christianity.

"It is the letter that killeth the spirit maketh alive." The spirit of our Government largely comes from Christianity. The soul of our legislation and our National life are in as marked consonance with the spirit of the Bible as that of any nation under the broad heavens. True it is that in this land as in all lands there is much of wickedness and yet it may not be denied that the Nation as a whole has recognized Christianity and been correspondingly blessed. It is this we want, the spirit rather than the formal letter of that recognition. And to make that recognition formal will, as must be clearly seen do violence to the convictions and sense of justice of millions of our citizens. It would re-set up the religious despotisms our fathers tore down. They did well to separate Church and State and provide that none shall be molested for conscience sake. The convictions of the Hebrew, of the Unitarian or even the skeptic, must be as sacred in the eyes of the Government as those of the most "orthodox," even as those of the members of this convention. To urge any other course is to enter into an advocacy of that hateful thing, sectarian tyranny. It suggests the going back hundreds of years to the time when Governments thumbscrewed and racked men and even roasted or boiled them or cut off their heads, for holding religious opinions contrary to "the established"

A Doleful and Losing Business

[From the Washington Chronicle]

The Democratic press of the country as by a preconcerted movement has lately teemed with assertions to the effect that President Grant has become universally unpopular with the party that elected him and that by his official acts and improper appointments he has demoralized the Republican party and broken it into factions and fragments which are now warring against him and his Administration.

The object of this is obvious to every thinking mind. It is to deceive the people and cause a portion of the Republicans to feel that General Grant is not available as a candidate for the Presidency in 1872 and this is because these sagacious but unscrupulous journalists believe that he is the strongest man that can be placed in nomination, and the only one who is certain to distance any candidate whom the Democrats rebels, copperheads, "reformers" and soreheads may name and put upon the course.

We warn our friends not to be deceived. We deny that any permanent or any serious division of sentiment exists in the Republican ranks as to the policy pursued by President Grant. We deny that he has in a single instance violated or departed from any tenet of Republican faith and here assert that he has tenaciously insisted on conducting the Administration on the principles enunciated in the platform of the Chicago Convention which by a unanimous vote placed him in nomination.

It is true that in some localities there has been dissatisfaction in the minds of disappointed Republicans in regard to appointments to office, and some disagreement on points not in the Republican platform. This, however has always been the case. Even President Lincoln dissatisfied many who voted for him because he could not gratify their wishes in appointments and in some other minor matters, so much so indeed as to cause the defeat of the Republican party in several of the States in the second year of his term. But all these disaffections were healed, and when he was renominated the party presented a united front, which was an assurance of victory, and despite the croakings of "Conservatives" and "Reformers" and all the unselfish predictions and assertions of the Democratic press the Republican party in 1872 will be a unit, and if it chooses as it probably will again to present Ulysses S Grant for the suffrages of the people, it will in our opinion triumphantly re-elect him and rejoicingly on the 4th day of March, 1873 again inaugurate him President of the United States.

When the people speak let grumblers and cunning prophets of ill stand from under

MARRIED NOT MATED.—A Pittsburg journal records the following: Two young men called upon two sisters and in the course of the conversation, the ice of decorum having melted away before the shafts of the [illegible] humorous humor of unfettered youth the young people began to dare each other to do all sorts of unadvisable things. A defiance to immediate matrimony was, of course promptly made and accepted for the staple jest of that class of persons is of rings and bridecake. One of the swains went out for a parson and the two couples were married with much giggling. Of course, after a spree like that there was no savor in further conversation, and the husbands went home. In the morning the clerical hierophant sent in the legal attestation of his last night's performance and the humorous quartet found themselves reduced to a duo. But that no element of idiotic absurdity should be wanting to the event each man was married to the other's sweetheart, a detail which had been overlooked as altogether unimportant in the mad hilarity of the ceremony.

The Bangor Whig relates as a remarkable instance that a daughter was born to the wife of Mr Frederick Howie, of Orneville Maine recently who is the fifth generation now living. The child has four grand parents, five great grand parents and one great great grand parent. Its great great grand mother is 87 years old hale and hearty. She has the privilege of saying, "Arise daughter and go to thy daughter, for thy daughter's daughter hath a daughter."

The people of Toledo have instituted a new social entertainment called a "Dickens party." All who attend must be clad in character after their idea of Dickens creations.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO FEBRUARY 28

Later from Paris.

PARIS Feb 27.—It has been stipulated that only 30 000 German troops shall enter Paris and that they shall not march beyond Place de la Concorde. Several of the journals announce that they will suspend publication during the occupation of the city and all recommend the inhabitants to remain within doors and close the shutters. The authorities are uneasy in regard to the attitude of the population when the Prussians march in.

The National Guard have been under arms all night, and perfect order has been preserved but the Guards and the regular troops are greatly discontented, and it is doubtful if they can be depended upon to restrain the people from violence at the appearance of the enemy.

Sunday being the anniversary of the proclamation of the Republic of 1848 the Reds held a mass meeting at Place de la Bastile. The demonstration was disorderly, a police agent attempting to preserve order, was seized by the enraged mob fastened to a plank, thrown into the Seine and pelted with stones until drowned.

The Armistice Continued

VERSAILLES Feb 27.—The Herald's cable correspondent of the London Times telegraphs that the armistice is prolonged to the 12th. When the armistice ceases three days' notice will be given before a renewal of hostilities.

A German Force to Remain in France

PARIS Feb 27.—The Journal des Debats says that during the three years allowed for payment of the indemnity 50 000 Prussian troops will occupy Champagne, exercising the right of requisition and live at the expense of the French Government. If payment be completed before the expiration of the time Champagne will be immediately evacuated.

It is understood that during the occupation of the city, unarmed detachments of the enemy will be permitted to visit public edifices in all parts of the city, but an army corps of 30 000 men will not leave Faubourg Honore. Excitement is intense in some parts of the city. It is said that the National Guards want to point their artillery at Champs Elysees.

The Hard Terms of Peace

PARIS, Feb 27.—The Journal des Debats comments on the cruel terms of peace imposed on France and says: "Thiers and Favre were several times on the point of breaking off the negotiations at the risk of resumption of hostilities and yielded only to necessity. Bismarck at first demanded an indemnity of ten milliards, and it was reduced to the sum finally agreed upon only by the most strenuous exertions.

Dispatches from Bordeaux.

BORDEAUX, Feb 27—noon.—The Assembly will hold no session to day. Thiers and Picard are expected here this evening.

At a meeting of the Left last night Louis Blanc said the union of sections of the Left would produce an excellent effect. This meeting was untimely, because it was held to protest against conditions which were yet unknown.

Gambetta moved that the meeting suspend protests till the conditions were announced to the Assembly, then they should adopt the same line of action but no formal engagement for united action should now be entered into.

Excitement in Paris

BRUSSELS, Feb 27.—The Belge says the call to arms was sounded in Paris on Sunday night. Both Nationals and regulars went to the Avenue des Ternes to oppose the entry of the Prussians. Should the latter insist on entering, serious scenes are expected.

From Luxembourg

LUXEMBOURG Feb 27.—Notice has been given of an interpellation concerning the recent action of the Government of the Grand Duchy.

Another Circular from Bismarck

LONDON Feb 27.—A circular has been issued by Bismarck recounting breaches of the Geneva Canon by French during the war.

The difficulty between Spain and Egypt originated in an insult made by a dragoman a [illegible] to the Spanish Consulate at Cairo, that he had been maltreated by the police. The Egyptian Government propose an investigation. This Spain refuses demanding immediate satisfaction. Consuls of other governments at Cairo oppose Egypt's course.

The British Parliament,

LONDON Feb 27.—In the House of Commons to night Otway formerly Under Secretary of the Foreign Department, after stating the reported terms of peace between Germany and France asked if her Majesty's Government had made any effort to mitigate their severity.

Gladstone replied that Count Von Bernstorff Minister of North Germany had notified Earl Granville and himself that the preliminaries of peace were signed this morning. He added that diplomatic representatives of the British Government in France had been instructed not to accompany the Germans on their entry into Paris and refused to make any further response to the question.

In the House of Commons this evening, in reply to a question Viscount Enfield, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said the Government was anxious to define its external duties towards other nations. It had last year, proposed Parliamentary legislation on the subject and had recently sent a commission to Washington. The subject was still under consideration.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, Feb 27.—The House Committee on the question between the House and Senate in reference to the right of the Senate to originate the bill to repeal the income tax, made a report in behalf of the House managers.

Public Parks and the Enlargement of Towns

[From Putnam s Magazine]

One of the most interesting and sensible papers read at a recent meeting of the Social Science Association was that by Mr Fred Law Olmstead on "Public Parks and the Enlargement of Towns" and we are glad to see that it has been published in a pamphlet. It is full of suggestion and sound thought the result of many years of experience operating upon a vigorous brain and a noble heart. Mr Olmstead begins by referring to the almost irresistible tendency of the population in all countries to gather into towns. The time was when the best sort of people liked living in the country, and the rural gentry were not only the most cultivated but the ruling class. Even in England which has so long been celebrated for its snug country homes and beautiful estates on which the owner resided all the year round maintaining a hospitable cheer and keeping up the amusements of field and hall, people are rushing to the cities. Our farmers sons and daughters are not happy unless they have the prospect before them of settling in town. The former want to become merchants or shopkeepers in order to participate in urban enjoyments and the latter dream of nothing but city delights city fashions city beaux. London is getting to be more and more the heart of England as Paris has long been the heart of France. Glasgow grows six times faster than the rest of Scotland Berlin twice as fast as the rest of Prussia and Dublin holds its own while Ireland depopulates. Such being the fact it becomes one of the most important questions how the people of the towns can be made most comfortable, most healthful, most refined in a word most civilized. Mr Olmstead s answer is, by the proper regulation and planting of the streets and the multiplication of parks that will admit of all kinds of neighborly recreation. Nor in our opinion does he exaggerate the importance of these means. The gregarious instincts of human beings are nowhere so safely harmoniously, innocently, beneficially gratified as in the free open air assemblages of well planned and well regulated parks.

Quills are things that sometimes are taken from the pinions of one goose to spread the opinions of another.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

Peace Terms Ratified

LONDON Feb 28.—Letters from Paris say an official notice signed by Picard, confirms the [illegible] nature of preliminaries. The armistice is prolonged four days.

Contributions and requisitions ceased.

The entry of the Germans into Paris was the price paid to save Belfort. Peace terms are ratified.

Additional from Paris

PARIS Feb 27.—The consultative commissioners goes to Bordeaux. On Tuesday debates commences.

One wing of the Prussian army will occupy the left bank of the Seine.

No one in uniform is allowed to enter the German portion which may be surrounded by barricades.

The city is still agitated. Crowds surround [illegible] placarded notice of Picard appealing for order and dignity.

Crowds have invaded the prison of St Pelagie and freed two commandants of the guard.

All papers commend nonresistance to the entry of the Germans.

All papers will abstain from publication during the German occupation. It is believed there will be a conflict.

LONDON Feb 28.—Paris ans believe the Germans will enter Paris to provoke conflict and give color to more exactions.

PARIS Feb 28.—The Siecle says the quest of entry to Paris occupied negotiators ten time longer than territory and indemnity.

Dispatches from Versailles

LONDON, Feb 28.—The Times Versailles special says Luneville Belfort and Nancy go to France. Longwy Thionville, Metz and [illegible]bruck go to Germany. [illegible] to pay the money in one year, [illegible] the Germans. Prince Frederick Charles Governor of Champagne with headquarters at Rheims. Emperor William will pass through Paris en route to Berlin.

The Germans, unaware of the prolongation of the armistice, attacked Havre to-day.

The Southern Pacific Road

WASHINGTON Feb 28.—The [illegible] Southern Pacific Railroad bill are [illegible]ing. The bill is, with request of the Senate [illegible] conference, on the Speaker's table in the House and cannot be reached without a suspension of rules and it is doubtful if a two thirds vote can be obtained for this purpose. If a conference is had and the bill is reported back with addition and any provisions for branch roads contained in the original Senate bill, the House will be likely to defeat it and if no such additions are made to it it will meet with strong opposition in the Senate. The bill has been badly managed, and if it is finally lost it will be owing to the folly of those who have had it in charge.

The steamship Prince Alfred was sold at auction on at the Merchant's Exchange at noon to day, for $12 750. It is understood that she was purchased for John Rosenfeld, and will run between this city and Victoria, bringing coal from Nanaimo on her return trips.

The managers of the Grass Valley Lottery commence arranging tickets to morrow morning and will be ready for drawing by Saturday morning at the farthest. The drawing will take from 20 to 24 hours. The principal prizes and the lucky numbers will be telegraphed as fast as received by the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 28.—It is now rumored on apparently good authority, that Webb s line of steamships to New Zealand and Australia will be put on without a subsidy, and that the steamship Nevada will start on the first trip about the 31st of March.

The steamship Prince Alfred, which came out here last year from England to form part of the line between San Francisco and ports of Mexico and Central America when sold at auction at the Merchant s Exchange to day only brought $12 750—a mere fraction of the cost of her engines. She was struck down to Birmingham, but it is understood that she was bought for John Rosenfeld and will be run between this city and Victoria, bringing return cargoes of coal from Nanaimo.

Fred W Clarke, who shot Seeleis Reed near Oakland in a land dispute last week, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $70 000 by Judge Crockett of the Supreme Court. Bail was furnished by Judge O C Pratt and Clarke's father.

The steamer Sol uns plying between this city Santa Cruz and Watsonville is closed in by a bar formed in the mouth of the Salinas river by the late storm, and it will be necessary to unload her. It is thought that the bar will be swept away and release her in a little time.

The passengers who came to this port by the steamer California twenty years ago to day are holding a reunion and supper at Martin s restaurant this evening.

The weather is clear and pleasant, but cool.

The Coroner is proceeding with the investigation of the Minna street disaster by which four persons were killed. The testimony is like that of the Summer street disaster some years since, and the verdict will probably lay the blame on Divine Providence.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

LOS ANGELES Feb 28.—At Gallatin yesterday Dick Lee shot at and fatally wounded Wm Duncan. They had been playing cards at a saloon all day Sunday and Sunday night, when a dispute arose about the game. Lee went home, but returned in about an hour, pushed open the saloon door with his cocked shotgun, and immediately shot Duncan as he sat at the table. Duncan fell over backward and Lee left. This evening it is reported that he is in San Diego, and officers have gone there to arrest him.

STOCKTON, Feb 28.—A man was arrested for alleged burning of his harness shop a few nights since for the purpose of securing the insurance. He has confessed to being an accessory to the crime.

Steamship Subsidies.

It is stated that the prospect of steamship subsidies has totally failed for this session of Congress. Nevertheless, as the subject is one of unusual interest, we are justified in making mention of some facts relating to the general proposition.

It has been urged with great force that no nation has ever succeeded in creating a steam commerce of its own, except by the adoption of the so-called subsidy system in one form or another. It may be a question whether the United States can or can not form an exception to this rule. Here are some facts in regard to what other countries are doing in this direction:

The amount of cash subsidies, or compensation, for carrying its mails paid by Great Britain to its lines of steamers per annum is $5,306,905.

To this is to be added nearly an equivalent amount paid in the form of postages allowed for the carriage of mail matter to lines running to various parts of the world, and guarantees from the Government to various lines to pay half the cost of such service, as in the case of the lines between Halifax and Newfoundland, New Orleans and Balize, British Honduras and New York and the Bahamas.

The French Government are paying annually in cash, in direct subsidies, $4,560,629, besides other large amounts, as in the case of the British Government, in postages, etc.

The North German Government is also paying for the transportation of its mails by its own steamers in postages, etc., but the data showing the exact amount are not obtainable.

While the steam commerce of Great Britain and France was in its infancy those countries paid up the subsidies at rates more than [illegible] as great as those now paid. As their steam commerce became strong and vigorous the amount of aid was reduced, though in no instance has it been wholly withdrawn.

In the British Parliament in 1867 a member who made a speech on this subject said:

> Wherever postal communication has been extended there commerce has invariably been stimulated. In fact, the conveyance of the mails has proved a most efficient agency for increasing our trade in all parts of the world.

A London paper, the Star, commenting on the debate which then occurred, said:

> It cannot be forgotten that the system which has hitherto prevailed in this country of subsidizing powerful companies, with the view of promoting speedy trans-oceanic communication, has been productive of the greatest possible benefits to commerce, and served many other patriotic ends.

A writer from whom we have deduced the above facts says: "Popular hue and cry is raised by the agents of the owners of foreign lines of steamships against all propositions and all measures which can be falsely stigmatized as 'subsidy schemes.' It seems to be forgotten that the Government of the United States is to-day paying three distinct lines of American steamships for mail services to China, the Sandwich Islands, and Brazil, and thereby recognizing and adopting the principle of subsidies in the common acceptation just as effectually as can be done by paying any other lines of American steamers to perform any other foreign mail service. Moreover it seems to be forgotten that the Government of the United States is to-day paying to foreign lines of steamers direct subsidies in giving them an amount of money the equivalent of the sea postage on the mail matter carried by them, and that each year sees the amount of subsidy paid in this form steadily increasing and foreign commerce increasingly benefited by it. Fifteen years, with the average increase of the past eight years, of mail matter to Europe, will swell the aggregate amount of sea postages that will be paid to these foreign lines running to Europe alone to nearly $17,000,000. Would it not be better policy to direct this to the benefit of 'American lines alone.'"

The case is simply this. It costs thirty per cent more to construct an iron steamship in America than in England. Besides this disadvantage, the American vessel is compelled to run against the heavy subsidy which the English vessel enjoys. This is the argument in favor of subsidizing American lines of steam commerce. Readers who may be interested in the subject, a subject which has been much agitated of late, will see how the argument stands.

Cranberry Culture.

The cultivation of the cranberry will, ere many years, become an important industry upon this northwest coast. Already there has been some inquiry here for cranberry seeds, and no doubt ere long there will be much more. The cranberry is now a staple article instead of being a luxury as in former years, and it is a source of large profit to the producer. An acre of land, suitably prepared, will produce $500 worth of this fruit, and it can be raised on tracts of swampy land totally unprofitable for other purposes. From [illegible] the product of nine fields in New Jersey the average production is found to be 116 bushels to the acre. With good care the fields will remain productive for many years. A writer in a recent number of the American Agriculturist says that the plant is at home only in sand, peat and water. An experienced cranberry grower in New Jersey says:

> Experience has proved that for the successful cultivation of this fruit, the following are requisites: First, a peat or muck soil, free from loam or clay; second, clean beach sand for covering the peat; third, a dam and water to overflow the vines when necessary; fourth, thorough drainage.

The average cranberry crop of the United States is computed at about 70,000 barrels annually. Few branches of industry are more profitable than this one when it is managed rightly. The native cranberry swamps of this region indicate that there may be successful culture of the fruit here, and these swamps will, at no distant day, be worth large sums of money.

It is believed that the opinion delivered by the Attorney General in the matter of the transfer of the land grant from the Oregon Central to the Wallamet Valley Railroad, will not be any obstacle to the construction of the road. The opinion settles nothing, the point in question being one for the Courts to decide in case it should ever come up. Better lawyers than the Attorney General have held that the transfer in the case of the East Side road, a case precisely like the present one, is perfectly good and valid. Those lawyers, William M. Evarts and Caleb Cushing, examined the case thoroughly, and stated that they had no doubt of the validity of the transfer from the one company to the other.

The Victoria Colonist says that President Grant will be invited to attend in that city the ceremony of taking over the Colony of British Columbia to the Dominion of Canada on the first of July next. We guess he will not be there.

Our Mighty Men of War.

We live in a material age. There are heroes among us and all around us. Major-Generals, and Brigadier-Generals, and Adjutant-Generals, and Colonels, and Majors, and Aides-de-Camp with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, and Surgeons with the rank of Major, all covered with a full panoply of titles and ready to appear before the admiring multitude in bright emblazonry and horrent arms, are announced by the Commander-in-Chief of the Oregon State Militia, who is himself ready to buckle on his flaming whinyard and lead his hosts to glory. Brave men there were before Agamemnon, but their names have all perished because there was no chronicler of their deeds. Not so will the names of the heroes that gather round our present illustrious Commander-in-Chief, perish from the earth. For have they not the whole litigant press of our noble and generous State to sing their praises and hand them down to undying fame?

It is true that in these times the natural and regular order of things is reversed, but what of that? The great bard says that in peace nothing so becomes a man as modest stillness and humility. But when the trumpet of war sounds in our ears, we should stiffen the sinews, summon up the blood and disguise our natures with hard favored rage. When the great war was upon us those who are now strutting in all the pride and pomp and glory of militia Generals, Colonels and Adjutants saw nothing to commend in the militia system. They derided it. It was not only not worth while, but it was positively wrong, to keep it up. There was something very "irritating" about it. In time of war when there might possibly be some use in a sort of military organization, it was all wrong. But now in time of peace, when it is certain there is no enemy to meet or disturbance to quell, these same gentlemen come to the front, put on the habiliments of war and begin to strut up and down before the gaze of an awe-inspired people. Militia organization now pleases them mightily, and they are thoroughly disgusted with these piping times of peace!

And who knows how soon, under the rule of an ambitious military government, we may be swept into war? Who can tell how soon the Commander in Chief, or the Falstaffian Major General, may ring that little Bell of the Second Brigade to summon us all to the camp? But there is one comfort. Our gallant commanders cannot force us to go nearer to the enemy than they are willing to go themselves, so we trust not to fill a ditch yet for these many days. We fully believe that the names of Gen. Bell, Col. Teal and other warriors of mighty bone and bold emprise will be sufficiently terrible to the enemy to guard our beloved State against his ruthless incursions.

A Democratic paper of Southern Oregon opposes the division of the State by the line of the Cascade mountains. We yesterday gave an article from a Democratic paper of Eastern Oregon, pronouncing strongly in favor of the division. The Southern Oregon paper says: "If the Eastern portion was taken away the city of Portland, being the center of our railroad system, with its accumulated capital, would be able to dictate not only our laws, but as it has heretofore done under Radical rule, select all our Senators and Congressman from that locality." If we remember aright it has not been exclusively "under Radical rule" that Senators and Congressmen have been chosen from this city. Have not the Democracy given us Senator Kelly from this locality? And did they not give us Congressman Smith? The Roseburg Plaindealer should deal more plainly with its facts. If it cannot find better reasons with which to oppose division it would better be silent. In Eastern Oregon, without distinction of party, the people are in favor of it, and we believe the proposition would carry in the State by three thousand majority.

The Bulletin says Washington's letter to Patrick Henry (written in 1799) "must ever be accepted as conclusive that he very emphatically deplored the introduction and adoption of the Virginia Resolutions." The facts warrant a still stronger statement than this. Washington in his letter to Henry not only deplored but he most emphatically condemned the introduction and adoption of the resolutions; and thus has left on record his condemnation of the doctrines on which the Democratic party was founded and on which it has existed to this day.

The Herald falls back on Alexander H. Stephens, the rebel Vice-President, for an explanation of its own political views and the position of its party. Stephens uttered those views as an excuse for secession and rebellion. The Herald thus makes the political doctrines of its party synonymous with secession, and asserts that a man must be a secessionist to be a good Democrat. There may be Democrats who do not accept this definition, but such cannot accept the Herald as their organ.

It will be the general judgment of mankind that the money indemnity exacted of France by Germany is too heavy. The other conditions of peace seem just enough. Germany gets a better frontier, and will have security against further attacks. But the requisition of money is enormous and excessive, and the precedent may recoil with crushing force on Germany at a future day when an enemy, whether he comes from the east or the west, dictates a peace within her territory.

Mr. Seward in China.

The following correspondence between Mr. Seward and Wan-tsiang, the distinguished Chinese statesman, is published in the Shanghai News Letter:

UNITED STATES LEGATION, PEKIN,
November 8th, 1870.

Your Excellency: Having arrived at Pekin, on a journey through the East, I have had an earnest desire to obtain the advantages of an acquaintance with the statesman who has figured so long and eminently in the Chinese Empire. I learn with sincere sorrow of your illness, which has prevented a public meeting with your Excellency at the office of Foreign Affairs. May I take so great a liberty as to ask that you will allow me to pay my respects to you at your private residence, if the state of your health shall at any time permit. With distinguished respect, your obedient servant,

WM. H. SEWARD.

His Excellency WAN TSIANG.

REPLY OF WAN TSIANG.

I have had the honor to receive your note. I have long heard of your Excellency's great fame, which for many years has been cherished by all nations, and myself have also respected you, and longed for a better acquaintance. Since you have come to this country, its higher officers will be still more desirous of seeing and conversing with you; but as for myself, my old malady having returned, I have been obliged to ask for leave of absence; and it was a cause of regret and disappointment that I was unable to meet you on the 17th inst., when you visited the Foreign Office.

I have your note of yesterday, in which you propose to yourself the great trouble of coming to see me—a proposal that I shall engrave on my heart and write on my bones. But my residence is mean and small, and its condition would I fear offend you, which would be a matter of deep regret to me; I have therefore set apart the 11th instant, to come and call on you at 1 o'clock P. M., if I am anywise able to do so, when we can converse at length.

I shall be pleased to receive a reply, and avail myself of this occasion to wish that happiness may daily be yours.

OREGON.

Dr. A. S. Kincaid died a few days ago at his home on Myrtle creek in Douglas county.

The work of building a light draught steamer to run on the Coquille river is being prosecuted rapidly.

The County Clerk of Marion county is taking depositions in the case of Hart vs. the McMinnville Ditch Co.

Gideon B. Kent of Douglas county, has been appointed to a vacant scholarship in the Corvallis Agricultural College.

Mr. B. Beers of the Salem Mills, the other day packed and piled away 700 bbls of flour in ten hours and ten minutes.

The Pioneer Oil Mills at Salem have on hand about 15,000 gallons of linseed oil. They have about 8,000 bushels of flaxseed yet on hand.

The question of removing the county seat of Polk county from Dallas to some more suitable point is being agitated. But we do not learn what point is deemed more suitable.

John F. Miller has been appointed Major-General of the Oregon State Militia. It is reported that he entered into negotiations for the purchase of that historic "sinch" that was worn by Gov. Gibbs, believing that he will be able by the assistance of his aids to buckle himself in it.

From the Salem Statesman: William Webster, who was, until lately, employed at the Salem Flouring Mill as a flour packer, has not been seen or heard of since a week ago last Wednesday, which is the more remarkable as he had no money and took away no clothes more than what he had on, as all the rest of his effects are now at the room he formerly occupied at the old Union Hotel. Webster had several times been on sprees, and had been continued at work at the mill on his solemn promise to reform. The last seen of him he applied to be taken on again while in an intoxicated condition, and was told that they would have no further work for him. He had often threatened, when intoxicated, to drown himself, and fears are entertained that he has done so.

New York Litigation.

[From the Pittsburg Dispatch.]

A fitting illustration of the viciousness which may grow out of a lawyer's employing his best talent in the defense of what is clearly violent and wrong, is shown in the history of the litigations in which Fisk, Gould and others managing the Erie Railroad, have been engaged during several years past. By stopping payment of dividends, the value of the stock of that company was impaired nearly $50,000,000, and as a result, suits for dividends were opened. Two New York judges—Barnard and Cardozo—however, were always ready to patronize the Fisk crowd, and to embarrass and delay by injunctions, counter motions and other legal machinery, every suit brought, till finally the prosecutors were glad to accept a compromise and draw off. But the most singular development of all is that of the seizing upon the English stock by Fisk and Gould. The English stockholders having over fifty thousand shares of Erie common, sent Burt to this country to care for their interests, and he eventually entered suit against Fisk and Gould, while they sent their stock to this country to be regularly transferred. To prevent this, a lawyer from this State, it is alleged, entered suit, and secured from Judge Barnard an injunction to prevent the Erie company from opening their transfer books. In the meantime the stock was sent to the Erie office for transfer, but was not returned, and an order was granted by Barnard forbidding the owners from demanding back their stock. The deliberate robbery, involving millions of dollars, was perpetrated, incredibly as it may appear, through legal machinery, and in a cause pending in a court of justice. The whole stock of the English holders left for registration, in all over fifty thousand shares, was taken from their possession and control, transferred to the name of "a receiver," and used according to his dictates, and unless report is greatly in error voted upon at the late election to continue Fisk, Gould and Lane in office, when complimentary resolutions were adopted approving their management. It certainly is true that, from the 23d day of June until the present time, no redress has been afforded against such action, and no return made of any of that stock. This, then, is the condition of affairs, and the end of this sad, disheartening and disreputable story. Through all these litigations there runs one and the same system. Delay in the first instance and purchase in the second. As with an enemy, every means is employed to stay the approaches of a hostile litigant. He is stayed, enjoined, impeded, fined, attached; if he prove too strong for this, he is, if possible, bought off.

The fact that such things can be done, under the forms of law, not only points to the importance of a very high sense of propriety among legal gentlemen, but more than that, calls for the most rigidly repressive legislation. So far as we know, New York is the only State in which such outrages can be perpetrated. But it is positively surprising that even there enough virtue is not found to have the right kind of laws passed so that those who will indulge in such rascality may be reached and punished as they deserve. But who cannot see that such depths of criminality are possible only through lawyers who are willing to prostitute their talents and learning to the most shameful uses, for parties who can pay liberal fees.

The Hog Used Up.

A traveling correspondent of Frazer's Magazine writes from Cincinnati, and thus describes the economy by which the hog is used up:

What crocodiles were in Egypt, what crows are in Bengal, or storks in Holland, pigs are here, with this trifling difference—their sacredness of character last but as long as their mortal coil; and this is abreviated without ceremony, and from the most worldly motives. In life the pig is free—is humored; he ranges the streets, he reposes in thoroughfares; he walks between your horse's legs or your own, he is everywhere respected, but let the thread of his existence be severed, and shade of Mahomet! what a change! They think of nothing but making the most of him. How many of this kind perish annually to cement the vast prosperity of the city, cannot be told. Although thirty years ago, when it contained only one fifth of its existing population, a few bold speculators began the trade. Selecting the hams and sides of the animal, they made pickled pork; of the rest they took small account; soon, however, the idea occurred to one more acute than his fellows, that the heads and feet, nay, even the spine and vertebræ, might be turned to account. Trotters and cheeks had their partisans, and these parts looked up in the market. About this time the makers of sausages caught the inspiration; they found these luxuries salable; and so many pigs were to be slaughtered the butchers were willing to do it for nothing—that is to say, for the perquisites of the entrails and offal alone. The next step was due to the genius of France. A Frenchman established a brush manufactory, and created a market for the bristles; but his ingenuity was outdone by one of his countrymen, who soon arrived. This man was determined, it seems, to share the spoil; and thinking nothing else was left, collected the fine hair or wool, and washed, dried, curled and stuffed mattresses with it; but he was mistaken in thinking that nothing else was left, as yet little was done with lard; they invented machines and squeezed oil out of it—the refuse they threw away. Mistaken then again! this refuse was the substance of stearine candles, and made a fortune for the discoverer of the secret. Lastly came one who could press chemistry into the service of Mammon; he saw the blood of countless swine flowing through the gutters of the city; it was all that was left of them; but it went to his heart to see it thrown away; he pondered long, and collecting the stream into reservoirs, made prussiate of potass from it by the ton. The pig was used up.

NEW TO-DAY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I wish to state that I am barred out of the Billiard Tournament by George Greene for the alleged reason that I have dealt faro at the Fifteenth Amendment Saloon.

Now I wish to ask the gentlemen why he don't bar out others who have played at my game in that saloon?

The real reason why I am barred out of the billiard game is, in my opinion, because Mr. Greene is afraid I will beat his favorite. GEORGE CRANE.

TERMS—Ten weeks in length, two Lessons per week.

From many testimonials we submit the following:

From Circular of the State Normal Board of Minnesota: "The importance of a correct and careful training of the voice, both in singing and speaking, can scarcely be over estimated. Probably thousands of our public speakers and singers are at the present time injuring themselves by a wrong use of the vocal organs. This is the inevitable result of a false system of training. Impressed with this fact, the Board has united the departments of Vocal Music, Elocution and Physical Culture under the more comprehensive designation of the Department of Vocal and Physical Culture, and has placed at its head Professor J. B. McGibeny, one of the most accomplished instructors in this field, to be found in the country. Under his thorough and philosophical system of training, the Board confidently expects to inaugurate a much needed reform in this important branch of education in the State. This training alone will more than justify the expense of the entire Normal course."

From Hon. Marlow H. Donnell, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in his report to the Legislature of Minnesota:

"Prof. McGibeny's eminent success in the State Normal School, stamps him master of his profession."

From Dr. Youman, of New York city:

"We regard these exercises of the highest value in gaining and retaining strength and symmetry of body and vigor and elasticity of mind. Under Prof. McGibeny's skillful leadership they indeed work wonders."

From Gen. J. W. Sprague, Director of North Pacific Railroad:

PORTLAND, Oregon, February 23, 1871.

Prof. J. B. McGibeny, now of this city, was formerly two years Professor of Music in the State Normal School at Winona, Minnesota, (an Institution of high rank among the places of learning in the East). During that term it was my privilege to have sons under the tuition of himself and wife, who assisted him. Both are regarded as possessing rare qualities for teaching, and their efforts were highly appreciated by all who knew them; and by their high social and moral qualities they won and have retained the friendship of all who knew them. I cordially commend Professor and Mrs. McGibeny as eminently worthy of the confidence and patronage of all.

INCIDENT IN THE LIFE OF A MILITARY HERO — A correspondent furnishes the following incident, recalled by the publication of the list of recently appointed officers on the staff of Commander in Chief, His Excellency the Governor. The circumstance will be remembered by some of the gallant Colonel's acquaintances

Your readers have doubtless seen the list of officers appointed under the State militia law by His Democratic Excellency, the Governor Among them is a prominent citizen of Portland, who is to have the rank dignity and title of Aid de Camp on the staff of the Commander in Chief, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel Most people know [illegible] Lieutenant Colonel for an old Oregonian [illegible] however, more of him than many of his intimate friends may suspect. The Lt. Colonel's appointment, I am informed by a friend on the inside, is due to an incident in his life wherein he exhibited those rare qualities, courage, will and [illegible] which we are accustomed to associate with the chivalry of the Knight of the mediaeval ages The incident demonstrates the fitness of the appointment. I believe it has never had publicity, though entitled to it Its authenticity, however, is beyond a doubt Here it is [illegible] in 1859 or 1860, a man named Bill [illegible] was arrested and placed in jail at Eugene [illegible] some criminal charge. Our Lt Colonel and several associates resolved to take charge of the punishment [illegible] proceeded to the jail [illegible] effected an entrance for the [illegible] The prisoner, who was [illegible] pocket knife, showed [illegible] his assailants severely but [illegible] The Colonel supposed himself to be mortally wounded by a stab in the abdomen. A physician arrived, to whom the sufferer declared [illegible] running into his boots, and with rare enthusiasm and kindled pride, said "Tell my wife [illegible] tell her, God bless her, that I died a [illegible] " An examination, however, [illegible] the fact that no wound had been inflicted The incident has its moral; it shows [illegible] our Lt Colonel would have [illegible] mistaken about the "clotted blood." [illegible]'s fellow staff officers have each [illegible] an equal amount of ancient [illegible] in their lives, which entitles them to [illegible] honors

[illegible] — We are informed that the members of our [illegible] Police establishment are [illegible] others— natty blue uniforms brass buttons [illegible] and oilskin caps!" Why not add [illegible] their fingers and balls on their toes [illegible] policemen are to have [illegible] exceedingly gratifying to learn that, the [illegible] blue and of the same pattern as that used by the Metropolitan Police of the Eastern cities [illegible] would be a disagreeable [illegible] thing to think on of nights, if our policemen [illegible] tramp tramp, tramp, along our streets in [illegible] of sober gray or brown or black [illegible] some city and [illegible] Metropolitan What's the use of having a Metropolitan Police, with a Governor at the head and [illegible] Commissioners, Chief Captains [illegible], if, after all, the Metropolitan Police [illegible] a full blown Metropolitan—of the same pattern as the Metropolitan police of Eastern cities Brass buttons too! Yes, we are done [illegible] Whenever we are [illegible] up and marched through the streets to jail, [illegible] the beating of the [illegible] the bitter cup of repentance that our captor wears a jacket blue, with [illegible] brass buttons onto [illegible] pattern as that of the Metropolitan Police of Eastern cities We are [illegible] the dark [illegible] as to whether the Adipose Com[illegible] Chief, etc., are to wear sunshades [illegible] only four inches, now It would [illegible] and be such a safeguard [illegible] But we are to have the natty blue and brass buttons anyhow and there is a world of comfort in that

MR. PARDEE'S LECTURE — We had no [illegible] to hear more than the last half of the lecture by Mr Pardee last evening on the subject— "[illegible] up Fish"—and we shall not presume, therefore to give any sketch of it [illegible] as we heard it it was somewhat a history of the English and American controversy about the fish [illegible] a review of the diplomatic efforts of the two countries to arrive at a [illegible] and satisfactory settlement of the [illegible] the influence that the controversies have had upon the relations of England the United States the English Colonies etc It struck us as [illegible] dry subject for a popular lecture, [illegible] was well written and evinced a [illegible] careful study of the question not only [illegible] but its political bearings Mr Pardee [illegible] interest nor amuse his audience as have some his predecessors [illegible] the course but [illegible] them the undisputed the [illegible] question

[illegible] TURN VEREIN — This old organization has at last yielded to the changes that Time has [illegible] men Quite a number of them who constituted its membership a few years ago when it was a healthy strong association [illegible] away from earth, while many more have removed to other localities, and so, the old association about which cluster so many pleasant memories has ceased to exist. Yesterday the Hall with fixtures and [illegible] was sold to the Independent German school society, and hereafter will be used for school purposes The proceeds will be distributed [illegible] the German charitable institutions of the city Thus the last act of the Turn Verein [illegible] is also one of the noblest Those of us who have often enjoyed the hearty hospitalities of the society will regret [illegible] dissolution and ever [illegible] with pleasure our social relations with it.

THE VALUE OF EXPLANATORY NOTES —The Herald's Chinese man [illegible] he wishes us to understand that his [illegible] notice and criticism [illegible] Chinese concert was a burlesque." Well, then why didn't he so label Artemus Ward made some reputation as a wit and humorist, by writing at the end [illegible] paragraphs such parenthetical explanatory notes as "(this is wit)" or "(this is [illegible] where the laugh comes in)." That dodge saved a deal of wear and tear of intellect too as the reader didn't have to stop and study the paragraph to determine whether it was wit or intolerable nonsense. If [illegible] had just placed at the end of his [illegible] "(this is burlesque)" we should have known at once what he was driving at.

AN INTERESTING FAMILY —East Portland is evidently getting rather full We hear of a family which recently arrived there and went into a little old shed which had formerly been used as a sort of [illegible] shop—that being the only available [illegible] in the whole burg The family consists of 1 man 1 woman, 6 children and 2 bears—regular bruins the latter We did not learn whether this is the nucleus of a regular menagerie, but the [illegible] in whose back yard the tenement is [illegible] seems to have some apprehensions on that score, inasmuch as he has some children of his own who might, some day, get too near the bear and thus contribute to a disastrous bear dinner.

BANK CLOSED—DEATH —Mr. W S. Ladd received information a short time since of the dangerous illness of his brother, J. W Ladd, at San Rafael California, and he immediately went down to see him. A telegram was received from him [illegible] day that his brother died yesterday [illegible] and the bank was accordingly closed the balance of the day The deceased was a resident of this city many years ago, and will be remembered by the older citizens here. He died of consumption.

AN IMPORTANT SUIT IN PROGRESS —The argument in the case of G W Vaughn vs the Lownsdale heirs was commenced yesterday before J. H Reed referee, and it may continue for several days, as the suit is an important one, involving the Pettygrove title It was decided yesterday that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree as against Pettygrove, Truesdell, Dement's executors, Mantee and Wren W W Chapman for the plaintiff, [illegible] Page, Thayer, Bronaugh and Catlin for the defendants

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO — The bark [illegible], Simpson, Master, will sail from this port to-day for San Francisco She takes the following freight 18 652 qr sks flour, 1,615 sks shorts and bran (43 tons), 200 bbls pork, [illegible] bbls salmon, 2 877 bags wheat, 445 bags [illegible] 3 900 barrel staves, 82 empty barrels, [illegible] boxes drugs, (re-shipped), 17 empty carboys, [illegible] empty bottles, 64 sks peas. Total freight [illegible] tons

LECTURE TO NIGHT —Rev Mr Kimball will give a lecture this evening at the Unitarian church, at 7½ o'clock, on "The Soul and the Bed." The public are cordially invited to [illegible]

AMUSEMENTS.

GERMAN FAIR —Let everybody remember the fair this evening at Turn Verein Hall, in aid of the German Patriotic Aid Association The articles to be disposed of will be on exhibition this afternoon at the Hall They are divided into chance schemes and will be disposed of by lottery, the number of chances to win being about as one to six All tickets in the schemes are one dollar each The money received is to be sent to the relief of German widows, orphans and wounded soldiers A visit to the hall this afternoon will be sure to be attended with some pleasure, and investments of coin this evening will afford relief to, perhaps, many sufferers whose claims upon our humanity are the same as if they were of our own nationality.

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT — The tournament among billiardists, the anticipation of which has excited a good deal of attention of late, will begin this evening at Greene & Knott's Cosmopolitan Saloon We learn that are there quite a number of contestants already entered, and that the tournament is likely to prove both interesting and exciting The prize to be awarded the winner, as we have heretofore stated, is an elegant diamond ring worth $200

FESTIVAL —There will be a festival at the Hall street M E Church this evening, the object being to raise funds for the purchase of a Sabbath school library

THE MINSTRELS —There was only a fair house at Oro Fino last night, though Nickerson, the recipient of a benefit, is unquestionably the favorite of the troupe with the public. The performance was one of the best of the Minstrel season, consisting of fully the usual variety of wit, eccentricities, dancing, character acts, etc, etc The prize—a silver cup—for the best conundrum, was awarded to Mr Marion Clarke of the Eclipse Saloon "Why are the Nickerson Minstrels like fishes? Because they were caught by baits" (Bates)

THE COURTS.

U S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE —The court met pursuant to adjournment but, without transacting any business, adjourned.

FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON JUDGE — State of Oregon vs Jacob Davis indictment for gross frauds at common law, defendant pleaded 'Not guilty," by stipulation of the parties cause continued for the term.

State of Oregon vs Robert Willey, indictment for forgery, verdict of the jury, "guilty," with a recommendation to the mercy of the court Thursday, March 2, set for pronouncing sentence

Louisa McLin vs Lafayette McLin, suit for divorce, decree granted

Venire issued for eleven additional jurors, to which the Sheriff returned, L. Bills, L W. Felton W E Cooper, E Risley, D Halprunner, G B Cook, A H Zahnizer, G T Bolter, E Howes, and S B Parrish

State of Oregon vs Michael Vert; indictment for assault with a dangerous weapon, on trial.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

TUESDAY Feb 28th.

James H Wilson, of California, to Minerva C. Bowles, the undivided one fourth of the donation land claim of Sarah Wilson, in sections 1 and 2, township 1 north, range 1 east quit claim deed, Aug 25, 1870—consideration. $550,

James W King to John H Jones lot 1, block 196 quit claim deed, Feb 8, 1871—consideration, $1,000

D Simon and wife to Samuel Simon, the undivided half of the north half of lot 3, block 6, quit-claim deed, January 30th, 1871, consideration, $ [illegible]

Leonard Fisk to Henry C Shattuck, 3 acres of land in section 8, township 1 north, range 1 east, quit claim deed, June 26th, 1869—consideration, $50

James W Ryan to P Saunders, lots 3 and 4, block 60 warranty deed Feb 6th, 1871—consideration, $600

A NEW OREGON PRODUCTION —We saw yesterday at Mr C H Myers shop several specimens of stone drainage pipe from Smith Bros' pottery at Buena Vista It has the appearance of being, and Mr Myers says it is, an excellent article of stone—superior in quality to the Eastern make The pipe at present is made by hand, and is not so fine looking as to finish as the Eastern, but the main point is the superior excellence of quality We learn that Smith Bros intend to procure the necessary machinery and to continue the manufacture on a considerable scale

THE WORST OF THE LOT —We have been apologizing all winter for the weather, and trying to make people believe that, after all it was not so very bad Yesterday, however knocked that charity out of us Yesterday was a regular buster—an elevated venerable day—one of the worst of the lot. We can't complain much of cold weather, but we have had no winter for several years so eminently distinguished for roughness and general unpleasantness as this one now present.

SHIPPING ITEMS. —The steamer California sailed from Victoria on the 31st ult, for Nanaimo for coal She was to return on the 23d and sail for Portland. She is probably kept back by stress of weather

The Ajax was still at Astoria yesterday morning, unable to get out

The Wright is overdue from Sitka, but heavy weather is doubtless keeping her back.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY. —We are rejoiced to learn that the rehearsals of the Philharmonic Society will be resumed on next Friday evening, the 3d inst Mr Wyatt, who so successfully conducted the former concerts of this society, has again returned to the city and will resume his former position, and we bespeak for the members a prompt and regular attendance

MEETING OF MEMBERS OF THE BAR —To-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, there will be a meeting of the members of the bar in this city and vicinity, to take steps toward the contribution by the legal profession, in aid of the family of the late Chief Justice Taney The meeting will take place at the United States court room

The Young Men's Class in Elocution, Vocal Music and Calisthenics will meet at McGIBENY'S ACADEMY OF MUSIC on Wednesday evening, March 1st, at 8 o'clock, at which time future meetings will be arranged Class for Boys at six o'clock Monday and Thursday evenings Class for Girls, Wednesday and Saturday evenings at one o'clock P M.

A Chapter of Facts

Space is valuable in a newspaper and it is therefore proposed in this advertisement to condense a variety of facts important to the public, into a small compass These facts refer to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—what that celebrated medicine is, and what it will do In the first place, then, the article is a stimulant, tonic and alterative consisting of a combination of an absolutely pure spirituous agent with the most valuable medicinal vegetable substances that Botanic research has placed at the disposal of the chemist and the physician These ingredients are compounded with great care, and in such proportions as to produce a preparation which invigorates without exciting the general system and tones regulates and controls the stomach, the bowels the liver and the minor secretive organs

What this great restorative will do must be gathered from what it has done The case of dyspepsia, or any other form of indigestion, in which it has been persistently administered without effecting a radical cure, is yet to be heard from, and the same may be said of bilious disorders, intermittent fever, nervous affections general debility constipation sick headache mental disabilities to which the feeble are so subject. It purifies all the fluids of the body including the blood and the gentle stimulus which it imparts to the nervous system is not succeeded by the slightest reaction This is a chapter of facts which readers for their own sakes, should mark and remember

A HOUSEHOLD BLESSING.

Jim Bludso, of the "Prairie Belle."

Wall no, I can't tell whar he lives
Because he don't live, you see
Leastways he's got out of the habit
Of livin' like you and me
What have you been for the last three year
That you haven't heard folks tell
How Jimmy Bludso passed in his checks
The night of the Prairie Belle?

He weren't no saint—them engineers
Is all pretty much alike—
One wife in Natchez under the Hill
And another one here in Pike
A keerless man in his talk was Jim,
And an awkward man in a row,
But he never flunked and he never lied
I reckon he never knowed how

And this was all the religion he had—
To [illegible] his engine well
[illegible] be passed on the river,
To mind the Pilot's bell,
And [illegible] ever the Prairie Belle took fire—
A thousand times he swore,
He'd hold her nozzle agin the bank
Till the last soul got ashore

All boats has their day on the Missisip
And her day come at last [illegible]
[illegible] Movaster was a better boat
But the Belle she wouldn't be passed
And so she come tearin' along that night—
The oldest craft on the line,
With a nigger squat on her safety-valve
And her furnace crammed, rosin and pine

The fire burst out as she clared the bar
And burnt a hole in the night,
And quick as a flash she turned and made
For that willer bank on the right.
There was runnin and cursing, but Jim yelled out,
Over all the infernal roar,
"I'll hold her nozzle agin the bank
Till the last galoot's ashore"

Through the hot, black breath of the burnin' boat
Jim Bludso's voice was heard,
And they all had trust in his cussedness,
And knowed he would keep his word,
And sure's you're born they all got off
Afore the smokestacks fell—
And Bludso's ghost went up alone
In the smoke of the Prairie Belle

He weren't no saint—but at jedgment
I'd run my chance with Jim,
'Longside of some pious gentlemen
That wouldn't shook hands with him
He seen his duty, a dead sure thing—
And went for it thar and then;
And Christ ain't a going to be too hard
On a man that died for men.

It was no place to inquire into the age of the minister, especially with any intent of entangling him in a debate, and above all where the querist was too illogical for any logical discussion. But the abrupt question of the pantheist was, "Mr Emmons, how old are you?" "Sixty sir, how old are you?" "As old as creation" was the triumphant and earnest response. "Then you are of the same age with Adam and Eve?" "Certainly, I was in the garden when they were" "I have always heard that there was a third party in the garden with them, but I never knew before that it was you."

UNK WEED REMEDY!

OR

OREGON RHEUMATIC CURE.

HISTORY

This remedy is composed of the active principle of the Unk Weed Eng —Thaspium, Cordatum, Organiue, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon—Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county

PROPERTIES, &c:

It contains an active volatile principle extracted by Ether, and a bitter Tonic principle.

Medical Properties and Uses:

It is the most Sure and Speedy Cure for Rheumatism Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that has ever been introduced in the Materia Medica. The Unk Weed Remedy as prepared by us in consequence of the existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a POWERFUL TONIC!

Promoting the Appetite and Invigorating the whole Digestive Apparatus, thus building and strengthening the system, while at the same time the volatile principle, being absorbed in the blood, acts specifically on the Rheumatic Poison, removing it from the circulation and system

There are few remedies known to the Medical profession, which will remove the Rheumatic poison from the blood but whose action is so powerful in depressing the system of the already enfeebled Rheumatic patient, that their use has to be abandoned before specific effects are obtainable. Hence the want of success in treating this prevalent, and in consequence heretofore incurable disease. Unlike these Medicines, a remedy known the

"Unk weed Remedy"

Though producing as powerful and as active effects on the blood and system in removing the Rheumatic Poison also possesses a strong Tonic and recuperating element, which admits of its continued use even in the most delicate and debilitated. Thus we have the combination for the first time of these two necessary elements in the one remedy, which accounts for its superior and never failing curative effects in

LAND DEPARTMENT

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM OREGON October 22, 1870

The following statement is made for information of all concerned

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd-numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands [illegible] division of [illegible] line from East Portland [illegible] at 12 M February 16, 1870. The second d[illegible] line from Jefferson to a point six miles [illegible] Roseburg, May 18[illegible] and from the last [illegible] to the California line 1870

Second—Persons who have paid pre-emption [illegible] stead claims to any tract on an odd numbered [illegible] can purchase the [illegible] from the Railroad Com[illegible] at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in [illegible] and upon very favorable terms if they so desire by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U S Land Office blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government. The party can leave the land if necessary, he can sell the land or mortgage it, he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents fees and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to prove up his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect I R MOORES
